IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
HOUSTON DIVISION

IN RE:

SUPERIOR OFFSHORE
INTERNATIONAL, INC.,
Debtor(s).

§ Case No. 08-32590

§ Chapter 11

§ Jointly Administered Order
§ Judge Isgur

ORDER SETTING CONTEMPT HEARING AND REQUIRING PERSONAL ATTENDANCE

The Court will conduct a hearing on the Plan Agent's Unopposed Motion for an Order of Civil Contempt Against Triumph Marine, Inc. and Robert S. Reich. The Plan Agent has alleged that Triumph and Reich have intentionally violated this Court's confirmation order by proceeding with litigation arising out of Superior's pre-petition conduct. Neither Triumph nor Reich have responded to the Plan Agent's motion. The motion attaches documents that appear to establish a prima facie case by the Plan Agent.

Despite the failure to respond and the gravity of the allegations as supported by the documents attached to the motion, the Court will not hold Triumph or Reich in contempt without conducting a hearing. Accordingly, the Court orders:

1. The civil contempt hearing will be on April 6, 2011 at 1:30 p.m.
2. Reich is ordered personally to attend.
3. Triumph's chief executive officer is ordered personally to attend.
4. Telephonic appearances will not be allowed.
5. Reich and Triumph are urged to retain counsel.
6. Appearances through counsel will not satisfy the requirement of personal attendance.
7. The hearing will be evidentiary.
8. Failure to comply with this order will likely result in an order to the United States Marshal to bring Reich and Triumph's chief executive officer before the Court.

SIGNED April 1, 2011.
